

Monthly summary 2

I've had to miss a lot of classes this month because of outside responsibilities. nevertheless, I've been able to keep up with the material in class and in the homework assignments. I've struggled in the past couple of weeks with misreading the Cengage deadline as PM instead of AM as a result I've missed 1 or two assignment deadlines. Overall, I feel comfortable going into the second exam and hopefully, I can earn a better grade this time.
